

WHITEHEAD UPHOLSTERY ON SHOW IN LONDON, DORSET AND LONG EATON

Whitehead Designs Upholstery featured on the Busby & Busby stand at Decorex in September, can now be seen in their Dorset showroom. Selected pieces can also be seen at the prestigious Chelsea Harbour showroom of leading fabric specialist Henry Bertrand. To view the full range of Whitehead sofas and chairs, a visit to their Long Eaton showroom offers the ideal opportunity to select both models and fabrics from the extensive range available.

The Shelley Sofa shown below in a Busby & Busby fabric, beautifully captures the Art Deco look that has recently had a resurgence in popularity, and there is a high demand at auction houses for object d'art from the period. The Shelley with its distinctive tulip shaped back and high curved arms, incorporates all the classic features of this stylish period, with the fine quality and meticulous attention to detail expected from Whitehead Designs Upholstery.

The Blenheim Sofa, as shown below in the Henry Bertrand Showroom, is a classic design that works well in both contemporary and traditional room settings, incorporating opulent duck feather and down, back and seat filled cushions, and sweeping arms.

“We are delighted to be featured in Henry Bertrand showroom and on the Busby & Busby stand at Decorex and in Dorset. These are just a very small selection of the designs available from Whitehead, and a full collection of sofas, occasional chairs and other accessories can be viewed at our customer’s leisure in our own Long Eaton, Nottinghamshire showroom,” says Janet Houston, Head of Sales & Marketing for Whitehead Designs Limited.
